THE SEPARATION.

In the absence of their usual weekly meetings, the members of the Grand National Convention of the American People have been separated into two camps. The one camp is headed by the late President Lincoln, and the other by the late Vice President Johnson.

THE FURNACE OF ABOLITION.

The furnace of abolition has been kindled in the city of New York. The flames are now reaching a height of such intensity that the whole city is in a state of commotion.

THE ASSASSIN.

South Chicago, Ill., March 27. A man who is believed to be the assassin of President Lincoln has been captured in Chicago.
